

Neil A. Bradley, M.Ed., M.Div.

Adjunct Faculty

Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

M.Div. (Pastoral Ministry) - Duke Divinity School; 1986

M.Ed. (Higher Education/Career Counseling) - University of Virginia; 1979

B.G.S. (Counseling and Human Development) - University of Maryland; 1978

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Ordination - United Christian Church and Ministerial Association, Cleveland, TN; 1987

DISTANCE LEARNING TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Faculty - Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary; 1994-Present

Taught Personal Development Course online - Daymar College; 2002-2003

Will teach RELS-PHIL 323 (Social Ethics) via ITV - WKU-Owensboro; 2009

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Career Counselor/Adjunct Professor - Daymar College: 1996-1999

Adjunct Professor - WKU-Owensboro; 1997 - Present

Student Services Coordinator - Daymar College; 1999-2002

Career Counselor - Brescia University; 2001-2003

Adjunct Professor - Kentucky Wesleyan College : 2002-2006

Student Services Coordinator - WKU-Owensboro; 2006 - Present

Coordinator: Berean School for Good Shepherd Church; 2008-Present

Also served in numerous ministry positions

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Academic Advising Workshop

Peer Advising Workshop; 1977

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Member - Good Shepherd Church

Member - GOAL Alumni Council

Member/Secretary - Big Rivers Chapter Red Cross Board (Also serve as LGIT for the Chapter)

Co-Host - 51 Magazine (OCTC Television)

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Portfolio Development; Social Ethics; Practical Ministry; Apologetics; Financial Management; Worship and Music