

Daniel Berger, PhD

Professor of Pulpit Communication and Expository Preaching
Trinity College and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Ph.D. (Rhetoric) University of Oregon, 1990

M.Div. (Homiletics and Old Testament) North American Baptist Seminary, 1981

B. S. (Pastoral Ministries), Western Baptist College (now Corban College), 1978

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Certificate in Journalism issued by Christian Writer's Institute

Ordination: Salt Creek Baptist Church, Dallas, Oregon, June 1981

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director of Assessment, Professor, and Chair of the Department of Communication, Simpson University, 2004-present.

Adjunct Professor, Pulpit Communication and Expository Preaching, Trinity College and Seminary, 1994-present.

Associate Professor, Chair, Department of Speech, Northwest Christian College, 1997-2004

Visiting Assistant Professor, Multnomah Bible College, 1996-1997.

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Speaking the Truth in Love: Christian Public Rhetoric, 2006, Eugene, OR: Wipf and Stock.

Presentation to Religious Communication Association, "Jesus and Aristotle", Nov. 2006, San Antonio, TX.