

Thomas W. Cahill, M.A.
Adjunct Professor of Biblical Studies and Theology
Trinity College and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Presently enrolled at Trinity College and Seminary, for Ph.D. in Religious Studies
M.A. (World Mission and Evangelism) – Asbury Theological Seminary; 1996.
B.A. (Christian Education) – Eastern Nazarene College; 1989.

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Ordination – Church of the Nazarene, Kansas City, MO; 1997.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Professor of Biblical Studies and Theology – Trinity College of the Bible; 2002- current.
Adjunct Professor of Practical Ministry – Nazarene Bible College; 2004 - current.
Adjunct Professor of Religious Studies – Indiana Wesleyan University; 2006
Adjunct Professor –Oakland City University; 2006-present
Chaplain for the Adult and Graduate Studies Division - Indiana Wesleyan University-current Executive Director- Nazarene Indiana Bible College, Albuquerque, NM, 2003-2005
Pastor with the Church of the Nazarene; since 1995
Missionary intern and teacher at the Caribbean Nazarene Theological College, Cantaro, Republic of Trinidad and Tobago; 2000-2002.

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Presently on the Faith and Reason subcommittee of Midwest Scholars Conference 2007

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Church Membership – Community of Hope, Corydon, Indiana;
Midwest Scholars

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Cultural studies, evangelism, missions, theology, religion