

Donna J. Mann, D. Min.
Adjunct Faculty
Professor of Women's Studies
Trinity College and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Doctorate of Ministry (Women's Studies) – Trinity Theological Seminary; 1999
M.Div. (Theology/Pastoral Biblical Studies) – University of Toronto; 1982
B.A. (Sociology/Social Work) – University of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada; 1979

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Ordination – United Church of Canada, Toronto, Ontario; June, 1982
St. Luke's Order of Healing, 1986
Supervised Pastoral Education 1976, 1980-1982 (4 units)
The Ontario Association of Consultants, Counsellors, Psychometrists, and Psychotherapists, 1999
Grief Recovery Institute of Canada, June 2001
Interim Ministry Network, Baltimore, Maryland, 2002

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Professor of Women's Studies, Trinity College and Seminary, 2001-present
Pastoral Ministry: 1982 – 2000
Researcher for "Ontario Rural Woman Abuse Study" Justice Canada, Ottawa 1998
Counsellor: Grief Coach & Life Issues Counsellor
Discussions Facilitator for rural churches looking to the future, Bruce/Grey Presbytery, 2001 - 06
Supply and Interim Ministry – UCC; 2001 -2006

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Article – Canadian Authors Association
Articles for local publications as President for Queen's Bush Ministries (Helping Farmers in Crisis) and community historical interests
Newspaper grief and life issues column

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Church Membership –United Church of Canada
Queen's Bush Ministries
St. Luke's Order of Healing
Grief Recovery Institute of Canada

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Biblical Studies; Rural Church demographics; Historical Canadian women; Dynamics of personal grief